

Health and Safety - Risk Assessment in the Workplace

CARDINUS RISK MANAGEMENT LIMITED

tel: 020 7469 0200 fax: 0844 338 8589

web: www.cardinus.com email: info@cardinus.com

Background

This course shows how risk assessments should be carried out in the workplace. It is relevant for all those involved in Health and Safety in any type of workplace.

TOPICS COVERED

- Accidents and illness, statistics, causes and costs
- Introduction to accidents and factors affecting health and safety.
- Introduction to Risk Assessment.
- Reasons for using Risk Assessment.
- Risk rating formulae.
- Personnel involved and competence of assessors.
- Legal requirements for Risk Assessment.
- Enforcement and penalties.
- Risk Assessment in Practice.
- Hazard identification.
- People and items at risk.
- Types of assessment.
- Risk evaluation and Control measures.
- Records, implementation, monitoring and revision.
- Generic assessments.
- Cost and benefits of Risk Assessment.
- Risk Assessments and quality initiatives, training, and development.

DURATION

This is a full day course.

COST

Please contact Cardinus for a quote.

